	06.5.2002 Shri Ashish Shrivastava, counsel for the petitioner. Heard. By this writ petition filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, petitioner prays for a direction to the respondents to release the arrears of salary from May 1988 to December 1988, arrears of revised pay scale for the same period and for payment of GPF, Gratuity which the petitioner is legally entitled to. Counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has made several requests for payment of his legitimate claims, but he has not received anything from the respondents. Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case and material on record, it is directed that petitioner shall make representation afresh before the respondents no.1 and 2 within two weeks from today and thereafter, respondents No.1 and 2 shall consider and pass reasoned within a month from the date of receipt of representation. At this stage, counsel for the petitioner referred to Annexure P/5 whereby respondents have replied to the representation of the petitioner stating that they are looking into the matter and shall revert back the petitioner very soon, but till date nothing has been done.
